AURORA

When... When I am down
I lay my hands upon this ground
For the thousandth time
I call him in, his earth is mine Before I make the offering
Remember all the faces that I've seen
Now all the marks have settled on my skin
From all the different places that I've been
That I've been And I feel the light for the very first time
Not anybody knows that I am lucky to be alive
And I feel the light for the very first time
Not anybody knows that I am lucky to be alive War inside my mind, behind my eyes, is coming down
For the thousandth time, I feel to numb, to even mind Before I make the offering
Remember all the faces that I've seen
Now all the marks have settled on my skin
From all the different places that I've been
That I've been And I feel the light for the very first time
Not anybody knows that I am lucky to be alive
And I feel the light for the very first time
Not anybody knows that I am lucky to be alive I... I don't know where I am, where I'll go
Where to even begin when I know
What lies behind makes no sense in my mind
But I know that it's time to let go And I feel the light for the very first time
Not anybody knows that I am lucky to be alive
And I feel the light for the very first time
Not anybody knows that I am lucky to be alive I'm lucky to be alive
I'm lucky to be alive
