Beautiful Tragedy

Josh Taerk

These days I leave the light on when I go to sleep
Thinking maybe weâ€™ll come back to what we could have been
In the morning itâ€™s still on
Iâ€™m still here and youâ€™re still gone

Our love was like a fire pure and uncontained
Our collision course opposing force made hurricanes
With everything destroyed
No sadness but no joy

I loved you but that wasnâ€™t enough
To stop everything from falling apart
We were always gonna end up this way
Another Beautiful Tragedy

The hardest thing I ever faced was our goodbye
But love can never work if you never try
I always loved your laugh
Maybe now youâ€™ll get it back

I loved you but that wasnâ€™t enough
To stop everything from falling apart
We were always gonna end up this way
Another Beautiful Tragedy

There was nothing you and I could have done
To save each other from what we had become
The ghosts we never wanted to be
Another beautiful tragedy

I loved you but that wasnâ€™t enough
To stop everything from falling apart
We were always gonna end up this way
Another Beautiful Tragedy

I loved you but that wasnâ€™t enough
To stop everything from falling apart
We were always gonna end up this way
Another Beautiful Tragedy

There was nothing you and I could have done
To save each other from what we had become
The ghosts we never wanted to be
Another beautiful tragedy

Beautiful Tragedy

Tonight I turned the light off when I went to sleep
Thinking maybe now weâ€™ll find out who weâ€™re meant to be
