Silver Balloon

Rowan Stuart

Rowan Stuart â€“ Silver Balloon

There was a child, drifting in a big, black sea.
She never smiled,
she was lonely.
And far away
all the shapes would shimmer in the dark.
Who were they?
Will they like her?

And she cried in her gloom â€˜Till that silver balloon came along wandering she held tight to the string

And she never let go
never let go, never let go, never let go
And she never let go
never let go, never let go

Sheâ€™s older now and gracefully she walks the line find simple joy
like the sunshine

And she spins a cocoon with her silver balloon never far from her sight still that friend she holds tight

And sheâ€™ll never let go
never let go, never let go, never let go
never let go, never let go, never let go

ooh, dancing in a circle child like you turn old just lost in another world where the clocks donâ€™t shine

And I dreamt that the moon was that silver balloon never far from our sight still that friend we hold tight

And I dreamt that the moon

Come rain come snow we will never let go
