Lazarus

â€œLazarusâ€• â€“ 7th Order music/lyrics: Daniel Jones the initiatesâ€™ journey found me light years from here blinded by beauty, taken in by the glare walking amongst the stones and led by the spirit an angelsâ€™ voice, bargained my life just to hear it and the song of Lazarus lives on the wind we hear it blowing by then back again

tales of Lazarus carry us away
across the centuries
until today

her songs and tales had me, mesmerized enchanted in a trance, i realized i had to know from where her wisdom came she said â€œthe words of Lazarus will never changeâ€• and on that day i learned the treasured secret the choice was mine to reject or keep it and if you listen closely gonna hear it too

i left her home that day, a wiser soul considered carefully what Iâ€™d been told now Iâ€™m going back again, i need to see her the path, the pain, trials of a true believer
