Laid To Rest

All Shall Perish

For every minute I have wasted upon you and
All the days that i have spent trying to destroy
You you had cursed me in those days in
The ways that always had me..... led astray
From my convictions from what i had built
What the fuck are you..... to me now nothing
You are just...time that never should have Been erase this wasted time in my life.... never Fucking should have been no more empty
Words or worthless thoughts on you just a lesson
Just a warning.... fuck the price that had to be paid
Just a lesson just a warning..... fuck the price paid
To be hated eternally... tell me... was it all worth it?
I lived those days closing my eyes to the Decay around me time's grasp set in to me
Your grasp wont follow me to the grave
You are laid to rest for the rest of your Life remember this....
You are Laid to Rest.
