

Weightless

Third Eye Blind

Summer, your ripped jeans are torn
Suh dude, you were screaming
I'd rather die than waste it
Open up, I wanna taste it I never loved anything that didn't scare me
I huck it off of everything and come up smiling
I wanna get weightless
I feel so weightless What do I do with this freedom
A prince of theft
Or a death wish screaming
Summer gods got me screaming I never loved anything that didn't scare me
Huck it off of everything and come up smiling
I wanna get weightless
I feel so weightless
Sometimes I feel like I can't make it home Sometimes I feel like I take all the scenery on my own
What's the cost and what have I missed
I want to get to the place where that's all there is Sometimes I feel like I can't make it home How many times has my heart flatlined
I think that I had lost my voice for you
I think that I've become paper thin
And all see through and
From the margins to the core I want to feel it just a little more
I think that I had lost my voice for you
Do you understand me, I want to be anialated
Perfect obliterated, oh oh, you're not going to make it
And all suh dudes, well they're just phonies
And all the girls are sparkle ponies
Do you understand me
Don't let my heart go flatlined
I never loved anything that didn't scare me
So huck it off of everything and come up smiling
I wanna get weightless
I feel so weightless
I wanna get weightless
I feel so weightless Summer
Summer

Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnyrics.com/>