

Till You Walked Away (feat. Hexstar)

Josh Stimpson

I never tried to get you off my mind
It just kinda happened overtime
But I will keep fighting till you return
Baby, if you only knew what I would give
To get you back in my arms
Baby, I want you, you, you, you (Verse 1: Josh Stimpson)
It goes like this
Everytime I talk to you, ya always take the piss
No one but me can relate these words
Sometimes I think why am I on this earth?
And... I tried my best but when I get in a relationship I get messed
But then again no one really wants me all they want from me is abit of sex
So shut up bitch! Why you take me cash?!
You used me abused me my whole life just flashed
Right before my eyes it was like s vision
When you hear these lyrics you know they we're written (ermmm)
You know love hurts deep down inside
I thought you be here right by my side
But you just don't care no wonder I'm alone
I walk this road I really wanna go home I never cried till you walked away
And now I'm stranded all alone
And I never thought you'd love again
But now you're with another man
There ain't nothing that I can do
But sit here wishing I was back with you (Verse 2: Baos)
The moment you met me you said that you was in love,
I thought you was a star that fell from above
But then you turned out to be a real stinky bitch
And you still say you love me I found that rich
You don't know about love but you know about the sex
Deep down besides you know my sex is the best
You can deny all you want but no boy can test
Fount ya with my mate I don't care about the rest
You just wanted a bang and not a relationship
But you wanted more than that I can't take this shit
I think if I would of stayed I might of flipped
I'm not a woman beater so dip yourself in shit
Cause' thats all your worth your not worth a dime
I got better things to do so don't waste my time

I'm gonna bust rhyme and earn all the p's
And live a life of luxury while your still on your knees
