

Love Song

Korn

Mother
You're holding my heart, screaming
Motherfucker
They left me broken, bleeding
Son of
The man you loved and left for
The son of a bitch
Who tried to show me death's door
Everything's eliminated
Everything is dedicated
My belief destroyed my hated?
Never get what's overrated
Love song for the dear departed
Head stone for the broken hearted
Arms to kill
Or flowers to steal
Head trip for the mortal earthbound
One sip of the blood that I found
Lying here
I'm dying here
As in
Obituaries rain down
It's okay
We're lying naked face down
Wasn't it decapitated?
Can you see me fascinated?
You're the only thing I've damaged
What you get to be mismanaged
Love song for the dear departed
Head stone for the broken hearted
Arms to kill
Or flowers to steal
Head trip for the mortal earthbound
One sip of the blood that I found
Lying here
I'm dying here
Dying here
Dying here
Don't bring me daffodils
Bring a bouquet of pills
See some geranium
Cracked to the cranium
Protect me when you can
Respect me when I am
Dying
Love song for the dear departed
Arms to kill
Or flowers to steal

Lying here
I'm dying here Love song for the dear departed
Arms to kill
Or flowers to steal Head trip for the mortal earthbound
Lying here
I'm dying here
