Farewell Party

Eamon McCann

Verse 1:
When the last, breath of life
Is gone from, my body
And my lips, are as cold as the sea
When my friends gather 'round
For my, farewell party
Want you, pretend you love meChorus:
There will be flowers from those
Who cry, when I'm gone
And leave you in this, world alone
I know you'll have fun
At my, farewell party
I know, you'll be glad, when I'm goneVerse 2:
Don't be mad at me, for wanting to keep you
Till my life on this old world is through
You'll be free at the end of my farewell party
But I'll go away loving youRepeat Chorus:
Oh, I know you'll be glad when I'm gone
