

The Next Untouchable

Cajun Dance Party

I can't believe, I can't deny
I can't conceive what's in your eyes
Another mistake, another regret
Another unwanted cigarette And do you really like me?
'Cause 1 and 1 and 1 makes 3
If you don't hear me
Then why should I hear you? I can't walk away
All I can do is say
Better luck next time The next untouch
The next untouch
The next untouch
The next untouch
The next untouchable I can't walk away
All I can do is say
Better luck next time The next untouchable
The next untouchable
The next untouchable I feel her
I move her
I believe her
I see her And then it comes
I know what to do
Do I feel it pure
Or is that just you? She said again
She said again
She said again
She said again She said again
She said again
She said again
She said again And do you really like me?
'Cause 1 and 1 and 1 makes 3
If you don't hear me
Then why should I hear you? I can't walk away
All I can do is say
Better luck next time The next untouch
The next untouch
The next untouch
The next untouch
The next untouchable I can't walk away
All I can do is say

Better luck next timeThe next untouchable

The next untouchable

The next untouchableI feel her

I move her

I believe her

I see herForget her

Forget her

Forget her
