

Woman

Alpha Blondy

Here we come again, Rastafari on the rise again.
Have you ever seen a woman givin' birth,
Then you know a woman of a higher power,
The higher power on earth, mystical power, physical power,
I say divine power
I say woman (woman)
Woman I love you, woman I love you
I love you, I love you, I love you, I love you woman
Forgive me for all the tears, all the fears
The restless days and sleepless nights you bear
You always care,
You're always there (always there)
I owe you life
I owe you the sun
I owe you the stars and the sky
Woman (woman)
Woman (woman)
Woman I love you
Woman I love you
I love you, I love you, I love you, I love you, I love you woman
I say, woman (woman)
Woman (woman)
Woman I love you
Woman I love you
I love you, I love you, I love you, I love you, I love you woman
I'm so sorry for being bad
Forgive me all the tears, and all the fears
These restless days and your sleepless nights
I say, woman (woman)
Woman (woman)
Woman I love you
Woman I love you
I love you, I love you, I love you, I love you, I love you woman
