

Love Lays It's Tune

Simply Red

Last night I made love for the first time
She gave me her soul, I surely gave her mine
We lay there just crying with both joy and gloom
The joy of what we had and the pain left
Where love lays it's tune Love tears you down
Oh turns you round My heart bears the scars of emotional wounds
I'm scared so it's hard to give myself to you Hurt builds a wall round our hearts it's true
The brave learn to live with the good and bad Where love lays it's tune
Love tears you down
Oh turns you round Oh I swear I'd do anything for you little girl
Nothing stupid or wrong but something
That'll make me true little girl Love tears you down
Oh turns you round
Love tears you down
Oh turns you round
Love tears you down
Oh turns you round
Love tears you down
Oh turns you round
