More Than a Dream

Unitopia

Coming soon something good
Something we can share, understood
Could be better news we can share
Something's coming soon I hear it everywhere
(Live it)
It's the story of our lives
(Give it)
It's the way we've always been
(Live it)
Though the mountains may divide
(Give it)
We have reached the sea
I believe we can change
We can make it more than a dream
And I believe that we can change
It's not as strange as it might seem
In the air I can feel
Something magical becoming real
From the other side looking in
Come on throw the dice and tonight we'll win
(Live it)
It's the story of our lives
(Give it)
It's the way we've always been
(Live it)
Though the mountains may divide
(Give it)
We have reached the sea

I believe we can change
We can make it more than a dream
And I believe that we can change
It's not as strange as it might seem
I believe we can change
We can make it more than a dream
And I believe that we can change
It's not as strange as it might seem
Driving through the night, just you and me
Faster than pale moonlight something's calling, calling us away

Do you believe heaven is a better place?
We'll be there in a heartbeat
I believe we can change
We can make it more than a dream
And I believe that we can change
It's not as strange as it might seem
It's not as strange as it might seem
I believe we can change
We can make it more than a dream
And I believe that we can change
It's not as strange as it might seem
I believe we can change
We can make it more than a dream
And I believe that we can change
It's not as strange as it might seem
I believe we can change
We can make it more than a dream
