Growing Old, Growing Cold

No Fun at All

I wanna take you out of heaven
I've already forgotten my crime
Well I fell out of heaven been trapped here for a long time
I've been waiting here waiting for a signI'm telling you , you are growing old
I'm telling you , you are growing coldI wanna take you out of heaven
You're beginning to look so sad
Nothing's happening in heaven
Where I'm staying it's not so bad
I've been waiting here waiting for a sign
