

Casualty

Missy Higgins

Give me my dream and give me a scene
Where you have a past of which you are clean
Oh, give me a lie Tell me you fell 'cos of my grace
And not to help you erase her face
And oh, make it your best lie 'Cos I'm holding up a crystal glass
Dove in my hands and if it does fall
If you do fall, it's my fault So I don't wanna be with one more casualty
'Cos all you're giving give me is pain
I'm not gonna be with one more casualty
'Cos all you see is a human bandage Tell me I'd find you're happy inside
And if I end this you'll be fine
Oh, tell me a lie Just look at me and say honestly
That I'm all you want, not what you need
And oh, make it your best lie, love 'Cos I'm holding up a crystal glass
Dove in my hands and if it does fall
If you do fall, it's my fault So I don't wanna be with one more casualty
'Cos all you're giving me is pain
I'm not gonna be with one more casualty
'Cos all you see is a human bandage And I've been playing games
But now I've change my ways
The character I always played
Helped me to forget my name
But now I know so get out of my way 'Cos I'm not gonna be one more casualty
It's been too long since I looked after me
Oh, I'm not gonna be with one more casualty
'Cos all you're giving me is pain I'm not gonna be with one more casualty
'Cos all you see is a human bandage
I'm not gonna be with one more casualty
'Cos all you seem to give me is your pain I'm not gonna be with one more casualty
'Cos all you seem to give me is your pain
I'm not gonna be
