Something in the Water

Lee Kernaghan

Lyndal is a waitress and she looks a little like Faith Hill Turning heads down at the roadhouse working the grill you'd expect she'd be the only one but theres plenty more like her out here where she comes fromtheres got to be something in the water got to be something in the atmosphere out here every good looking daughter would make you swear theres something in the waterLyndals got some cousins out on the five mile plain they've got the family likeness they realy drive the boys insane you should watch them rope see them ride when they turn the mob watch the red dust flytheres got to be something in the water
would make you swear theres something in the watersee those girls walking down the street or at the swimming hole boys from out of town who stop this way they shake their heads and you can hear them saytheres got to be something in the water
would make you swear theres something in the water
