

Silly Willy

Monica Heldal

Silly Willy took on too much
He couldn't handle more
Silly Willy took on too much
So he tripped and fell, down on the floor
Silly Willy made a bad choice
He didn't think twice
Silly Willy made a bad choice
He made a choice, on the rolling dice
Now your, sailing days are over
So, lay down your oars
Oh your, sailing days are over
So, lay down your oars
Silly Willy traveled away
He went away for years
Silly Willy traveled away
And my eyes were wet
They were full of tears
Now your, sailing days are over
So, lay down your oars
Oh your, sailing days are over
So, lay down your oars
