

Runnin'

Frazey Ford

Who are the one-eyed?
Aha! For Something else
I know why no one gets out
'Cause, you'll find I'll come with you out
You'll find that you can do it
All by yourself
Nothing is just so fine
All alone to find
Hey yeahCause you're the judge (oh yeah)
I never doubted you
I never doubted you
Cause you're the judge
I never doubted youHey, you have always
Paid to testify
Hold the world beyond destruction
So nobody asks a question
Cause you're getting tired
Everyday that ends
You're alone in your mind
Running in circles in your heart
Hand over handCause you're the judge (oh yeah)
I never doubted you
I never doubted you
Hey you're the judge
I never doubted youCause you're the judge (oh yeah)
I never doubted you
I never doubted youCause you're the one holding yourself
