

Losing Patience

Alter Bridge

Sitting by the telephone
Waiting for what would never come
A chance to be the chosen one is all
But gone
A rising time within your heart
Longing for the love to start
Far beyond the rigid face that you come to know
Are you finally losing patience?
May your [marching] time has come
May you fight for what's been taken
Find your strength where there is none
A message from so long ago
Reminding you that you let go
Why did you throw it all away
And [still aren't you so]
But now you see what's come to past
You're screaming for a second chance
If life is what you made to [be]
To make it your own
Are you finally losing patience?
May your [marching] time has come
May you fight for what's been taken
Find your strength where there is none
No, your life is still worth saving
Can't you see how far you've come
If you find you losing patience
Then just [?] your time has come
Your time has come
This may be the only way
You got
Second chance to turn the page
Move on
If you choose to wallow any sorrows
What will be the cost
If you [dare and] follow no tomorrow
Find where you belong
Move on
Move on
Are you finally losing patience?
May your [marching] time has come
May you fight for what's been taken
Find your strength where there is none
No, your life is still worth saving
May you fight for what's been taken
No
The time has come
If life is what you made to [be]
To make it your own
