Eternal Night

Carry Hatchet

Say your last goodbye, the rest have gone away
I wont be surprised if you miss that train
Cause you were the first one to settle down
Buried deep in the heart of the underground
Keeping watch for the morning light
Your mother tells you itâ€™ll be alright
Eternal night
Eternal night

You wonder how it went wrong, and how this came to be
How did you stay blind when the rest could plainly see
That the evidence was all around
But you chose to remain underground
Keeping watch for the morning light
Your father tells you itâ€™ll be alright
Eternal night
Eternal night

Thereâ€™s still time to change, I heard that once in school
But you cut class the day when they said thatâ€™s not a universal rule
So you settled down
I guess thereâ€™s no escape from the underground
Keeping watch for the morning light
You tell yourself itâ€™ll be alright
Eternal night
Eternal night
