

A Legacy

Marillion

When I leave you
I will leave you things that might not help you
Things that might
Problems that I never solved
Dreams to keep you up at night
As I leave you
I will leave you things that stick for ever
Things that slide
Mysteries I swallowed whole
Happiness I couldn't share
(I will leave you)
Promises I never kept
(I will leave you)
Stories that I never told
Principles betrayed or sold
(I will leave you)
Love I tried to spread too wide
(I will leave you)
Muscles you can grow in hate
(I will leave you)
Summer, darkness, winter light
Young man's shame an' old man's pride
Happiness I couldn't share
(I will leave you)
Promises I never kept
(I will leave you)
Stories that I never told
Principles betrayed or sold
(I will leave you)
Love I tried to spread too wide
(I will leave you)
Muscles you can grow in hate
(I will leave you)
Summer, darkness, winter light
Young man's shame an' old man's pride
When I leave you
I will hate to leave you
That's the heat that grows
With growin' old
When I leave you
I will hate to leave you
That's the heat that grows
Happiness I couldn't share
Promises I never kept

Love I tried to spread too wide
Young man's shame an' old man's priiide
When I leave you
When I leave you
I will hate, to leave you
When I leave you
I will hate to leave you
That's the heat that grows
With growin' old
So never let me leave you
Never let me leave you
Never let me leave you
Cold

Lyrics provided by
<https://damnyrics.com/>