Deathblow To Your Pride

Superdrag

It's easier to live alone
Than it is to try to love you
It's easier just to get things done
Than it is to pray you'll be deliveredAnd I freely admit that I've been wrong
Yeah, I already knowIt's hard enough just to stay alive
We're megalomaniacal
Strike the deathblow to your pride
And deal with this cycle that breeds failureAnd I freely admit I've been too slow
Yeah, I already knowEver since the night I burned up alive
To carry on beyond the grave
One emancipated slave
I've just begun to fightIt's easier to take two steps back
Than it is to march on
Constantly under attack
By one unanswered questionToo scared to admit it's been too long
Yeah, you're already goneEver since the night I burned up alive
I carry on beyond the grave
One emancipated slave
I've just begun to fightEver since the night I burned up alive
I carry on beyond the grave
One emancipated slave
I've just begun to fight
