

Reservoir

PUP

Took a path to the top of the mountain
You walk forever just to meet me at the reservoir
Out of luck, out of money, take your clothes off
 Meet me at the reservoir
 Meet me at the reservoir
 Meet me at the reservoir
 I guess you live and you learn
 I guess you'll get what you deserve
 You're on your own
 I'm letting go at the reservoir
 You're sinking like a stone
 We had it all and it fell apart
You only want it when you're bored with the quarry
 I only want it when I'm wasted at the reservoir
Out of touch, out of loving, the edge is coming and I'm wasted at the reservoir
 My lungs are killing me, I didn't even get high
 Forget longevity, we're just tryin' to get by
 It isn't apathy, I just don't care if I die
 My lungs are killing me, I didn't even get high
 You're on your own
 I'm letting go at the reservoir
 You're sinking like a stone
 We had it all and it fell apart
 What did you expect?
Ohh at the reservoir, you're sinking like a stone
 I'm letting go
 It's never pleasure, it's always work
 Meet me at the reservoir
 Meet me at the reservoir
 I guess you live and you learn
 I guess you'll get what you deserve
 You're on your own
 I'm letting go at the reservoir
 You're sinking like a stone
 We had it all and it fell apart
 What did you expect?
Ohh at the reservoir, you're sinking like a stone
 I'm letting go, I will stay afloat
