Pieces

Ella Henderson

You say that it's alright
Right when we live in pieces
But pieces fall apart
A part of you is missing
Mr. Done with thinking
I think we went too far
Now every time we talk
We say a little less
And every time we kiss
It ends up being a mess
You say that it's alright
Right when we live in pieces
But pieces fall apartThe pieces of my heart
No you can't fake love
Loving the game you play
You played me from the start
It starts to end today
Today of had enough
Enough to give you up
I'mma put out this place
A place where you can get me forWoah, oh oh
Woah, oh oh
Woah, oh oh
Woah, oh oh
Woah, oh oh
Woah, ohAnd we started out
Out in those I love you days
The days that seemed so bright
You brighten up inside
The side of you I love
The love we had, you crucifiedNow every time you laugh
It seems to make me cry
And when we say the truth
We're only telling lies
But when we started out
Out in those I love you days
The days that seemed so bright
But I can't make it rightNo you can't fake love
Loving the game you play

You played me from the start
It starts to end today
Today of had enough
Enough to give you up
I'mma put out this place
A place where you can get me forWoah, oh oh
Woah, oh oh
Woah, oh oh
Woah, oh oh
Woah, oh oh
Woah, ohSo watch me run away now, away now
'Cause now I'm gonna break out, break out
I'm breaking to the place where I'm alive
And no,Can't fake love
Can't fake love
NoNo you can't fake love
Woah, oh oh
Woah, oh oh
Woah, oh oh
Woah, oh oh
Woah, ohYou say that it's alright
