These Scars

Lorenzo

In a matter of moments this could all be over Still I slip on my coat and step into the cold Itâ€™s a brand new chapter in the same old story Trying to find my way without the hand I used to hold Iâ€™m so tired of being cold

All the scars I hope to mend Only tell me where Iâ€™ve been Where Iâ€™ve been
All the moments left to hide
Are the scars that hurt inside
Still hurt inside

Tell me if Iâ€™m shaking no one seems to notice
In a sea of faces no one stares at all
So tell me whatâ€™s the secret thatâ€™s underneath your pillow
I need the secret thatâ€™s been hiding in the dark Iâ€™m trying so hard

Iâ€™ve touched the sun Iâ€™ve felt alive
From outside Iâ€™m breathing Still I struggle to survive Deep inside Iâ€™m freezing
I know the world can be unkind
But I always find my way...

I used to let it all slide give in before we collide
canâ€™t stop go back and rewrite all the years and how it should be
I used to let it all slide
give in before we collide
canâ€™t stop go back and rewrite
all the years and how it should be

In a matter of moments this will all be over
