

Cornerstone

Day of Fire

All other ground is sinking sand
A dying maze of desert land
Where darkness rules the heart of man
Till the sun shines light on him Lord of all, show You're strong
On our knees we fall Be a Cornerstone, be a Cornerstone
Be the Rock higher than I
Be my Fortress Wall
Be a Foundation for all
My Cornerstone The building swaying in the wind
The towers crumble down again
This certainly will be the end
If they're not built on Him Lord of all, show you're strong
On our knees we fall Be a Cornerstone, be a Cornerstone
Be the Rock higher than I
Be my Fortress Wall
Be a Foundation for all
My Cornerstone You, You are the Builder of my heart
You held me together from the start Be a Cornerstone, be a Cornerstone
Be the Rock higher than I
Be my Fortress Wall
Be a Foundation for all
My Cornerstone Be a Cornerstone, be a Cornerstone
Be the Rock higher than I
Be my Fortress Wall
Be a Foundation for all
My Cornerstone
