Rewind

Swirl 360

Stop
Right there where you stand
Can we start again
And write this book just one more time
It's sad
To think it's come to this
But this is where it is
And now our road is undefined

Is it me
Is it you
Tell me what
Can we do
Should we give it one more try

'Cause we're dancing in the middle
And we're running out of time
It's too late and it's too little
Tell me can we just rewind

Hey
It was ok for a while
We hid behind a smile
Now look at where we are today

So
The momentary high
We somehow let slip by
Are we ever going back again

Should we stop
Should we go
Are we losing control
Won't you please just tell me why

'Cause we're dancing in the middle
And we're running out of time
It's too late and it's too little
To even say goodbye

'Cause we're lost in indecision
And the answer is hard to find
Seems we have a lack of vision
Tell me can we just rewind

Gone are the days that we used to know
When I thought that they all would last forever
And I see what you mean
When it all falls apart
Nothing really seems to make it better

Should we stop
Should we go
Are we losing control

'Cause we're dancing in the middle

'Cause we're lost in indecision
Seems we have a lack of vision
