Warning Signs

Rob Houchen

Thereâ€™s a light in your eyes every time we kiss
See it glows, every time we kiss
Makes me feel Iâ€™m home

Hold my face in your hands as we stand out in the night
Not sure but I
Think that this feels right

But Iâ€™m turning around in circles

And Iâ€™m feeling around the edge
Living against the line
Iâ€™m feeling around the edge
looking for warning signs

I can lie here alone and the doubts they seem so true
And then theyâ€™re gone
When you walk in the room

Couldâ€™ve turned, couldâ€™ve ran but I stayed right by your side
And now inside Iâ€™m

Turning around in circles

And Iâ€™m feeling around the edge
Living against the line
Iâ€™m feeling around the edge
looking for warning signs
Warning signs

Tell me what happens if your love goes to sleep
Tell me what happens if Iâ€™m not the one you want to keep

And Iâ€™m feeling around the edge
Living against the line
Iâ€™m feeling around the edge
looking for warning signs

Tell me what happens if your love goes to sleep

Tell me what happens if Iâ€™m not the one you want to keep

And Iâ€™m feeling around the edge
Living against the line
Iâ€™m feeling around the edge
looking for warning signs
Warning signs

Thereâ€™s a light in your eyes every time we kiss
See it glows, every time we kiss
Makes me feel like home
