The Dark Tower of Abyss

Rhapsody

or sale), yeah s to dark horisons fly where the twilight reigns Mighty Tharos cross the line of hell it's so nearLost in the shadow I search for my sun Fly and face it before the new moon
there where chaos rulesDomine deterges nubila caeld Bellator a proposito non deterreres Unholy vision ancestral terror spare my mind my innocent eyes"...And suddenly the the unreal silence is broken by a lament...
A lament coming up from the deepest Darkest abyss...
And from the seven gates of the dark fortress the dead come back to life to face him... this is hell..."
Immortal fire now light my heart light my way Face the old legend the guardian of space and timeLiving dead on black winged demons fly high to play with your head Gothic portals mystic towers between the dark cloudsLost in the shadow I search for my sun Fly and face it before the new moon
there where chaos rules
