

The One I Love Belongs To Somebody Else

Ella Fitzgerald

It's tough to be alone on the shelf

It's worse to fall in love by yourself

The one I love belong to somebody elseYou know the one I love belongs to somebody else

He means his tender songs for somebody elseAnd even when I have my arms around him

I know his thoughts are strong for somebody elseThe hands I hold belong to somebody else

I'll bet they're not so strong to somebody elseIt's tough to be alone on the shelf

It's worse to fall in love by yourself

The one I love belong to somebody elseIt's tough to be alone on the shelf

It's worse to fall in love by yourself

The one I love, yes, the one I love

Oh, the one I love belong to somebody else
