This Suicide

Six Feet Under

I take chances thinking of death
I really just wish for it
If it came today I'd kneel down and ask
Would you take my soul away?Take it away
Would you take my soul?
Take it awayIt comes down to this simple fact
Life's not worth living when it seems like the end
It seems like the end every day
It seems like the end and I don't want to prayFor forgiveness or for strength
Just gonna end this miserable life
Comes down to this simple fact
Life's not worth living when it seems like the endThis suicide inside
This suicide
This suicide inside
This suicideSuicide inside
This suicide
This suicide inside
This suicideYour intervening it made me believe
That I'm alive, I'm not better off dead
I'll take my chances, I'm gonna live
And turn the gun on you instead
