The Element

O.A.R.

Yeah, yeah
Yeah, I'm in the element
Who's to say it'll get much better
Yeah, when you've got everything
Who's to say it'll last foreverI'm on the beach, sun in my hands
Rays on the waves dancing like diamonds
Looking for peace here in the sand
Sounds of the world suddenly silentStreetlights are on again
Don't think I wanna come back in
I need to stay right where I stand
And wait for the sky to bendYeah, I'm in the element
Who's to say it'll get much better
Yeah, when you've got everything
Who's to say it'll last foreverI need to live this
Not be a witness
Yeah, I'm in the element
Oh, I'm in the elementI'm on the scene sailing away
Chasing the light on the horizon
I can't believe everyone stayed
Now I'm alone far from the islandThis time I won't forget
Lighthouse can't call me in
I'd rather stay out on the waves
And wait for the swell to endAnd it's in my hands againYeah, I'm in the element
Who's to say it'll get much better
Yeah, when you've got everything
Who's to say it'll last foreverI need to live this
Not be a witness
Yeah, I'm in the element
Oh, I'm in the elementI'm unaware, don't know when I'll be here again
I'm a wanderer, it's my only road
Won't go home 'til I own what I came here for (I came here for)Yeah, make me feel like my life ain't over
Yeah, make me feel like I'm getting closerYeah, I'm in the element
Who's to say it'll get much better
Yeah, When you've got everything
Who's to say it'll last foreverI need to live this
Not be a witness
Yeah, I'm in the element
Oh, I'm in the elementI need to live this
Not be a witness

Yeah, I'm in the element
Oh, I'm in the element
