San Cisco

hello hello
i've been waiting, watch you all night i dont know whyin the morning i'll be waking wishing i was right maybe sometimes in the evening i take you out for dinner and a fight cant read your mind I cant read your mind we watched the sun go down and then the moon comes out aint pictures with your hand I chase you i'm your biggest fanwho's gonna catch you now who's gonna catch you now running so far away so far away x2my mind is black and blue it keeps pictures of you now i know whyyou moved away from here towards another hemisphere and all i want to be is in your company i made a mixed tape with all the songs that you hate cant read your mind i give up this timewho's gonna catch you now who's gonna catch you now running so far away so far away x2oooooh oooh ohhh oooh oooh oooooh oooh oohh oooh ooohi heard your voice today but we last spoke in May i still miss you now you're a ghost at sea drifting peacefully you'll never come back to me I read your eulogywho's gonna catch you now who's gonna catch you now running so far away so far away x5
