Longevity

I the Breather

I forgive your weakness
In light of all this bleakness
You were merely human
Destined to be ruinedCH
Startled as your brevity
Turned to my longevityI can't follow your steps
Can't go the places you went
I must forge my own path
Overcome & surpass(CH)The more I see around me
The more it does to ground me
At peace with all my limits
Grateful for all I'm given
