

Livin A Lie

Very Metal

You put on a fight
Blaming me the feeling's gone
But I know you ain't right
I never felt it all alone I hide away my fear
Hoping no one will come near
'Cause they can't see me
When I'm trying to be me Livin' a lie
Tell me why I run and hide
Livin' a lie

You'll never know me deep inside I put on a smile
And try to pretend that I'm all right
'Cause it's only a while
'Till I can run into the night I hide away my fear
Hoping no one will come near
'Cause they can't see me
When I'm trying to be me Livin' a lie
Tell me why I run and hide
Livin' a lie

You'll never know me deep inside You put on a fight
Blaming me the feeling's gone
But I know you ain't right I never felt it all alone
I hide away my fear
Hoping no one will come near
'Cause they can't see me
When I'm trying to be me Livin' a lie
Tell me why I run and hide
Livin' a lie

You'll never know me deep inside Livin' a lie
Tell me why I run and hide
Livin' a lie

You'll never know me deep inside I hide away my fear
Hoping no one will come near
'Cause they can't see me
When I'm trying to be me Livin' a lie
Tell me why I run and hide
Livin' a lie

You'll never know me deep inside Livin' a lie
Tell me why I run and hide
Livin' a lie

You'll never know me deep inside
