Brains

Mark Tremonti

It's what you're dying for
Been stripped off your pride, been damned before
But you never learn
Are you really blind?
Lost sight of the truth and lost your mind
You will break no more, break no moreDo you feel much better all alone?
And out of place
(Betrayed)
I fear the worst of days are yet to come, wash it down
(Somehow)Lay your burden down
Decided that most would watch you drown
The truth it burns
Now you must go on
A slave to this life, your chance is gone
You will steal no more, steal no moreDo you feel much better all alone?
And out of place
(Betrayed)
I fear the worst of days are yet to come, wash it down
(Somehow)Whoaaa
YeahhhAll you want is more
You came in and you took it all
And all you wanted to be was hidden somewhere just out of reach
Now and forevermore, forevermoreDo you feel much better all alone?
And out of place
(Betrayed)
I fear the worst of days are yet to come, wash it down
(Somehow)Oh, oh...
