Chris Brown

Uh oh, uh oh, uh oh, uh oh
You might've seen her on every cover
Of every magazine
But can't nobody get her but me Uh oh, there she go
Uh oh, there she go
Uh oh, there she go
Can't nobody get her but me Hot, damn, let me tell you, man
She look so good, I'ma say it again
So good that I can't explain
When she do what she do she gon do her thang Over here, Miss Lane
Come on, get fly with a Superman
You ain't gotta worry, I won't play no games
Baby, tonight So don't front
You know you wanna stay
It's all fun
So baby, come and play It's picture perfect the way you work it, girl
What's your purpose? Cause I deserve it, girl
Before we get into somethin crazy
All yall fellows back up off my lady Get you one cause I got that one
Get you one cause I got that one
Get you one cause I got that one
Get you one cause I got that, got that It's the way she wears her clothes
The beauty of a low
The definition of a star

But can't nobody get her but me Uh oh, there she go
Uh oh, there she go

Can't nobody get her but me Damn girl, set my flame ablaze
Top model chick from my favorite page
At the same time from around the way
When she break it down she gon do her thang After the beat drop
You can hear the bass from the parkin lot
You ain't gotta worry, you won't tell me stop
Baby, tonight So don't front
You know you wanna stay
It's all fun
So baby, come and play It's picture perfect the way you work it, girl

What's your purpose? Cause I deserve it, girl
Before we get into somethin crazy
All y'all fellows back up off my lady Get you one cause I got that one
Get you one cause I got that one
Get you one cause I got that one
Get you one cause I got that, got that It's the way she wears her clothes
The beauty of a low
The definition of a star
Wanna meet her? You might've seen her on every cover
Of every magazine
But can't nobody get her but me Uh oh, there she go

She jiggle it, my stick gets stiff
Make a brother think she a hypnotist 'Cause she hypnotize
Brothers gon trip when she arrives
