The Rapture

Jeff Bates

I woke up to the silence, an eerie kind of quiet that voice inside that tells you something's wrong Her purse was on the table teddy bear was in the cradle everything was here but they were gone and toys were in the hallway her car was in the driveway I was calling her name but there was no answer then I walked by the TV, saw a million people like me panicked cause their loved ones disappear there were a thousand explanations from terrorists to aliens reporter said it's worse then we had feared and right then I knew exactly what on earth was happening I was left behind and standing in the morning after ... The RaptureMaybe I should have read her Bible or gone to that revival or thought a little more about my soul But I didn't have no time for Jesus or see how a cross could free us or believed there was a heaven like I was told now I'm still here praying I could goand toys are in the hallway her car is in the driveway she said this would happen someday Oh and everybody's asking what on earth is happening and I'm left behind and stranded, trembling with the answer....The Rapture
The Rapture
