Storm Centre

Wolfheart

When the chaos and confusion take a breath
All there is to hear is silence
Ferocity and cruelty has come to cease
In a heartbeat ends all violenceEye of the storm, ease inside of a disarray
For a blink of an eye discipline in disorder
Storm of the swords
The gale of war
Soon unleashed upon us allThe breath of air
Transforming into a hurricane
A taste of dirt and bloody soil
The winds are returning
With a force immense and colossalWith haste we charge towards our fall
Despair, demise we leave behind
No honour in victory in this godless play of war
No disgrace in defeat
No dignity in death
That awaits us all
