It's Not Fair

Spodie

You don't think I have a clue.
But I know where you are tonight.
Cos she's the one you dream about.
When you kiss me good night.
I bet you hold her close.
And gaze into her hazard eyes.
And then you slowly give to her.
The love that should be mine. (mine)
It's not fair.
It's so wrong.
You're not here.
When all I did was give you my all.
While mine breaks.
Her heart you hold.
I guess my love wasn't enough to keep you home.
I bet she's beautiful.
The sweetest thing you've ever seen.
She's probably got the figure of.
One of those girls in magazines.
She probably gives you butterflies.
Every time she says your name.
I bet you never think.. think about.

The life with me you made. (you made)
It's not fair. (not fair)
It's so wrong. (so wrong)
You're not here.
When all I did was give you my all. (my all)
While mine breaks. (mine breaks)
Her heart you hold.
I guess my love wasn't enough to keep you home.
So here I am. (here i am)
With my face in my hand.
But I don't understand.
Why I deserve. (I deserve)
The kind of hurt. (kind of hurt)
You give to me. (give to me)
You give to me...
It's not fair. (not fair)

It's so wrong. (so wrong)
You're not here.
When all I did was give you my all. (my all)
While mine breaks. (mine breaks)
Her heart you hold.
I guess my love wasn't enough to keep you home...
