

Hold Back the Night (feat. Earl Young)

The Trammmps

Well well, it's alright, it's alright
Hold it girl, squeeze it girl
It's alright, shucks[Chorus]
Hold back the night, turn on the lights
Don't want to dream (dream about you baby)
Come on (hold back the night) hold it
(Turn on the lights, don't want to dream)
Oh no no no no no no-no (dream about you baby)When you left
You took the sun right out of the sky
I'm wondering why you went away
Never told me huh, told me why
And then the sun goes down and the moon is clear
Scared to death 'cause your face appears
Come on[Chorus]Loneliness is haunting me when I go to bed honey
Like a character in a book, in a book that I read
Now when the sun goes down the moon is clear
Scared to death
'Cause your face I've missed you knowHold it, hold it, hold it, hold it
Well well well well well well well baby
It's alright
Hold it girl, squeeze it girl, it's alright ohNighttime is the right time for loving you
Loving, for loving you
Baby baby lady babyWhy don't you just hold it my love, yeah
You know I need it my loveHold me, squeeze me, just love me, just squeeze me
It's alright talkin' about day or night
Talkin' about it's alright, oh yeah
Nighttime is the right time for loving you
Loving you, for loving you
Baby baby lady baby
Bib-bib-bib-brr-lib-idy-dib-bib
Bib-baby it's alright
(Hold back the night, turn on the lights)
(Don't want to dream, dream about you baby)
Well well well well well well well baby
It's alright
Hold it girl, squeeze it girl, it's alright oh
