

Crash and Burn (Acoustic)

Matt Bloyd

I don't think I know how I went wrong you liked what you saw after my first song I risked it all I could thought I was strong one kiss was all it took to break my walls and I know that what I feel for you is wrong I got good love at home and I can hear her crying and I know that all ill have to say is chorus:

go on pack your things and leave cuz you deserve to just be free I know the writings on the wall I deserve the down and out tell em how I was unfaithful you know Id do the same to me I know I made a mess of things and now I'm spiraling down crash and burn oh oh oh oh oh oh crash and burn oh oh oh oh see I down know where I'm supposed to start that truth I kept will only break your heart and I know why your right to be on this side well maybe I should just try and hide yet I know I have to face my demons and you deserve a better man I was a liar gave in to fire and all I have to say is

(chorus)

burn baby burn burn baby burn baby burn burn babe
burn baby burn burn baby

think of prince as evidence I love my body your kiss ignites my final flame and all I have to say

(chorus)

burn baby burn burn baby x3

oh oh crash and burn
