

If Only

Lightning Seeds

A joke is not a joke, it's serious stuff
Till it's laughed at this moment's not the past
It's nothing at all till I say that Angel, throw me a line
It's about time, it's about time
Never too late, I will escape
I just can't wait Don't tell me there's no tears left to cry
Don't tell me that you're lonely
You're lonely remembering the who, how and why
Don't tell I'm your only if only The glitter and the gloom
Catch a glimpse of you in the room
Dollar bills for dreams
Nothing round here's quite what it seems Angel, throw me a line
It's about time, it's about time
Never too late, I will escape
I just can't wait Don't tell me there's no tears left to cry
Don't tell me that you're lonely
You're lonely remembering the who, how and why
Don't tell me I'm your only if only If I could feel it, if only
If I could mean it, if only
