

No Soul

Jessica Vale

Brothers, must ye wander, wander everywhere?
Will you get your freedom when you fall?
Bright eyes will find you, sharp lies will blind you
My sisters, do you [Incomprehensible] No soul, never seize control
Just let go and let the energy flow
No soul, never seize control
Just let go and let the energy flow Brothers, will you, can you stray from the parade?
But do you even meet your [Incomprehensible]
Break rules to make you, no fools will take you
My sisters, easy love is just more of the same No soul, never seize control
Just let go and let the energy flow
No soul, unless you really seize control
Just let go and let the energy flow
