

Happy

Tracy Chapman

Should be happy to be loved
Happy to be
Unburdened by the thought
I could still be lonely
I think you're the one
Everyone agrees
But some can see the face of love
And turn away in disbelief Every time we get close
I just run
And the wind on my face
Last rays of the sun
Shine on my skin
My heart slow me down
Is all that I can feel
All that I can feel
All that I can feel
All that I can feel Should be happy to be loved
Happy to be
With someone who knows
And understands me
I think you're the one
Everyone agrees
But some can touch the hand of love
And pull away in disbelief Every time we get close
I just run
And the wind on my face
Last rays of the sun
Shine on my skin
My heart slow me down
Is all that I can feel
All that I can feel
All that I can feel
All that I can feel Should be happy to be loved
Happy to be
Possessed by nothing but
A heart that's chosen freely
I think you're the one
Everyone agrees
But some can feel the grace of love

And walk away in disbelief Every time we get close

I just run

And the wind on my face

Last rays of the sun

Shine on my skin

My heart slow me down

Is all that I can feel

All that I can feel

All that I can feel

All that I can feel All that I can feel

All that I can feel

All that I can feel

All that I can feel Should be happy to be loved

Happy to be Should be happy to be loved

Happy to be
