Earthly Perfect Harmony

Michael Card

Lately it seems
All our dreams
Have slipped right through our hands
And Iâ€™ve become both doubt and also doubter
Itâ€™s hard to ask
If love has passed us by
Or if itâ€™s simply gone to sleep
To slumber till our hearts decide to wake it

Or could it be that we forgot the Source of our special love
Turned our backs upon
The One who made it burn and glow

If we choose
Not to lose the light
That made us shine in each otherâ€™s eyes
If we decide that life aloneâ€™s no life at all
Then we must see
That love can be
The earthly perfect harmony
The Lord composed for children of His own to sing

But I need to understand
And love you with a nail-scarred hand
And you must touch and see
The frightened child inside of me

If we go on
Weâ€™ll shine our light upon
A world that badly needs to know
A human soul can love another human soul
