A Woman In Love

Joan Armatrading

When the morning comes
Like shifting sands
In a desert storm
Like a raging fire
Heats up the big sky baby
Your love is pure and strong
Chained to your heart I surrender
Here's where I belongAnd If I get emotional and I'm restless
Youre like a soothing ray of light
Bring to me to my senses in a heart beat darling
Hold me tender in the nightTell me what miracles are made of
Like the sweet soft morning dew
How can I ever show you baby
How can I prove it all to youThat I'm a woman in love
I'm a woman in love
I'm a woman in love
I'm a woman in loveI get so mixed up and tongue tied
I can hardly say my name
Bring to me to my senses in a heart beat darling
Hold me tender in the nightCos I'm a woman in love
I'm a woman in love
I'm a woman in love
I'm a woman in loveNever thought this would Never thought this would
Never thought this would happen to meNever thought this would
Never thought this would
Never thought this would happen to meI'm a woman in love
I'm a woman in love
I'm a woman in love
I'm a woman in love
