Deerhunter

Take me on the trip man I'll never get sick.
Take me wherever you go and I won't complain along the way.
Well, I've been waiting so long to say bye bye bye.
This town ain't gave me nothing but a bald head and trouble. Well, if it can't be better if it can't be tried.
Doesn't matter much boy and I will dry my eyes.
Well, I could be your boyfriend though I could be your shame.
Until I see your eyes in the beltway (?), babe. Let's go.
Hey, I came from the delta down to the plains.
Well, I came round from the delta right through the plains.
Right through the plains, right through the plains.
Right through the plains, right through the plains. Well, I came from the delta down to the plains.
When I got back home there was nothing unarranged.
The woman that I love took another man.
When nothing ever ends up quite like what you planned.
