

Dr. Phuck

Surrounded By Monsters

There is no real meaning to this life.
It's like a song without a dancer.
It's like a king without a crown.
There's no meaning when there is no purpose to the cancer.
Maybe I would pray if maybe God would answer.

Today I felt your breath, today you made my bones hurt.
Today I felt your breath, today you made my bones hurt.

I am confused by the way things have to be, confused by the way I have to see.
When every question has no answer and all of the answers, we never question.
They say there's a light at the end of the path, show me the light at the end of the path.

Tell me what's next, tell me what's after all this.
Tell me what's next, tell me what's after all this.
Tell me what's next, tell me what's after all of this.

Sometimes I want to throw myself into, into the ocean.
I want to stare into the abyss.
You can only force feed someone for so long until they lose their appetite and if they could see me now they'd be crying out
"Oh my God what have we done? Look what we did."

It just gets hard to breath knowing how small I really am, hard to sleep until I wake reborn.
It just gets hard to breath knowing how small I really am, hard to sleep until I wake reborn.
