

All I Want

Skunk Anansie

Yea yea All I want is a mirror
So I can see this so called brighter day
I'm watchin' all the world crawl back again
Watchin' how it blows itself away That's all I want
It's all I want
That's all I want
It's all I want
Want want All I want is destruction
I wanna see it crumble beneath my toes
Smell the way my sore eyes burn away
I wanna see it all today That's all I want
It's all I want
That's all I want
It's all I want
Want want want want All you want is to be me
So you can screw me up but don't give a damn
'Cos I'm a crazy little daisy to vile to breathe
So that I can have today That's all I want
It's all I want
That's all I want
It's all I want That's all I want
It is all I want
That's all I want
All I want
